From left: Campbell received the Navigator Leadership Award for identifying operational improvements and extending the Navigator Awards program. A 10-year veteran employee, Campbell oversees the Customer Resolution Services team, which helps student loan borrowers every day by providing information and resources they need to successfully manage their loans.

Campbell was tasked with leading a program ahead of deadline and implemented operational improvements to continue to enhance after launch. Demaree, a servicing specialist, received the Solutions Navigator Award for demonstrating outstanding customer-centricity. Demaree joined the company just six months ago, bringing 30 years of customer service experience. He regularly connects with clients to answer questions or resolve any issues they may have.

"Kevin is well respected among Navient's leadership, his peers and his direct reports," said Jack Remondi, president and CEO, Navient, who presented Campbell with the award. "Kevin's time with Navient has provided him with the experience to provide expert guidance to his team and he sets the example for focusing on what is right for our customers and for Navient."
