

Navient announces CFO changes

Jun 2, 2020

WILMINGTON, Del., June 02, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Navient (Nasdaq: NAVI), a leader in education loan management and business processing solutions, announced that its Chief Financial Officer, Christian Lown, has resigned to accept a new career opportunity.

Ted Morris will serve as acting CFO, effective immediately. Mr. Morris joined the company in 2003 and has served as Navient's controller since 2014.

"Navient has unquestionably benefited from Chris's contributions across our enterprise," said Jack Remondi, president and CEO. "He has helped to build a stronger, more resilient company, and we wish him well in his new endeavors."
