

NAVIENT.

Nov 11, 2014

Navient Employees Honor Nation's Military In Veterans Day Parade

NEW YORK, Nov. 11, 2014-Navient, the nation's leading loan management, servicing and asset recovery company, today joined other employers of the 100,000 Jobs Mission to honor military veterans. Employees participated in the 1.3-mile march up Fifth Avenue during "America's Parade," the annual Veterans Day Parade in New York City.

The parade honors all eras and branches of service, with the U.S. Marine Corps as this year's featured service branch.

An estimated 600,000 spectators attended the parade, which is organized by the United War Veterans Council.

Navient is a member of the 100,000 Jobs Mission, a coalition of major corporate employers committed to hiring military veterans. The 178 member companies have now pledged to hire 200,000 veterans by 2020. They hired 190,046 veterans through the third quarter of 2014.

Connect with @Navient on Facebook, Twitter and LinkedIn.

About Navient

As the nation's leading loan management, servicing and asset recovery company, Navient (Nasdaq: NAVI) helps customers navigate the path to financial success. Servicing more than $300 billion in student loans, the company supports the educational and economic achievements of more than 12 million Americans. A growing number of government and higher education clients rely on Navient for proven solutions to meet their financial goals. Learn more at navient.com. Created from the strategic separation of Sallie Mae, Navient began trading on Nasdaq as an independent company on May 1, 2014.

Contact:

Media: Nikki Lavoie, 302-283-4057, nikki.lavoie@navient.com

Customers: 888-272-5543

A crowd of volunteers from member companies joined the march with the 100,000 Jobs Mission parade float on Veterans Day, November 11, 2014 in New York City.

Navient military veteran employees, Curtis Andrews and Mario Cortez, marched along the 100,000 Jobs Mission float during the annual Veterans Day Parade in New York City.