Pioneer Credit Recovery to host employment events this month

Local employer seeks to fill open jobs in Wyoming County

PERRY, N.Y. and ARCADE, N.Y., Sept. 16, 2014 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Pioneer Credit Recovery, a Navient company, will host walk-in interviews and an open house this month. The company plans to fill open positions on its collection services team at its Arcade and Perry offices.

Walk-in interviews will be held Monday, Sept. 22 from 10 a.m. - 7 p.m. at Pioneer's office in Perry, 20 Parker Lane. The open house for jobseekers will run from 12 p.m. - 6 p.m. on Wednesday, Sept. 24 at its office in Arcade, 26 Edward St. No advance appointment is needed to attend either event. A $2,500 first-month bonus will be provided for qualified, experienced student loan collectors to join the team.

Interested applicants are encouraged to apply online at jobs.navient.com. They should bring their resumes on Sept. 22 and be prepared to interview with a member of Pioneer's management team.

"We are thrilled to give potential employees the opportunity to meet directly with local recruiters, and learn more about our company during the open house," said Jack Frazier, vice president, Navient.

Navient's family of asset recovery companies, including Pioneer, is one of the largest, most responsible, most compliant, and top performing operations in the country. Pioneer employees provide excellent service to state, federal and institutional clients as they counsel clients' customers on successful debt repayment options.

The company offers a benefits package to include competitive wages, incentive programs, paid holidays and vacation, a 401(k) plan as well as health, dental, and life insurance.

The ideal candidates should possess strong communication skills, a professional demeanor, confidence and assertiveness, and basic computer skills.

Interested applicants may e-mail kelly.tracy@navient.com for more information.
