General Revenue Corporation to host open house for job seekers

Local employer seeks to fill more than 30 positions for its asset recovery team

MASON, Ohio, Oct. 6, 2014 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- General Revenue Corporation is opening its doors to all interested applicants on Saturday, Oct. 11 at its Mason, Ohio facility, located at 4660 Duke Drive, Suite 300. A subsidiary of Navient, the nation's leading loan management, servicing and asset recovery company, GRC plans to hire more than 30 full-time collectors in the next month.

The open house, which runs from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., gives potential employees the opportunity to meet with human resources and the management team, interview, and tour the facility.

Interested applicants are encouraged to apply online. They should bring their resumes and be prepared to interview with a member of Navient's management team.

"An open house at Navient gives everyone the opportunity to meet face-to-face in a friendly environment, and to not only find out more about what the company has to offer, but what you as an individual can bring to the table," said Brian Hill, senior director, Navient.

Navient's family of asset recovery companies, including GRC, is one of the largest, most responsible, most compliant, and top performing operations in the country. GRC specializes in providing superior collection services to its clients.

Candidates who have student loan collections experience may be eligible for a $1,000 bonus.

The company also offers a benefits package to include competitive wages, incentive programs, paid holidays and vacation, a 401(k) plan as well as health, dental, and life insurance.

The ideal candidates should possess strong communication skills, a professional demeanor, confidence and assertiveness, and basic computer skills.

Interested applicants may e-mail Jodi Harmeyer at jodi.harmeyer@navient.com for more information, and call 513-605-7565 to register.
