The new look comes about a month after Navient officially split from Sallie Mae, creating two completely separate entities.

Local officials joined company leaders and employees for the sign unveiling.

"Navient will continue to be a significant employer in the region," said Mayor Dennis Tyler. "It was great to celebrate the new sign and the company's future in our community."

"College affordability is a major issue facing millions of Americans in today's economy," said Sen. Tim Lanane. "I am thrilled there is an organization like Navient in my home district of Delaware County that helps millions of customers successfully repay their college loans, gain their financial independence, and ultimately rebuild the economy."

Navient provides customer service to assist 12 million customers to successfully repay their education loans. Navient also performs asset recovery services for more than 1,500 government and higher education clients.

"Navient is a new name in town, but we've been part of this community since 2006," said Kevin Campbell, vice president, Navient, and a head of the Muncie center. "We're proud to be part of Muncie and Delaware County. As Navient, we commit to help Americans navigate the path to financial success."

Navient provides competitive compensation and a generous benefit package that includes health insurance, vacation, 401(k), stock options, disability insurance and more. For more information about jobs at Navient in Muncie, visit jobs.navient.com.
